FATALE ATTRACTION

Fudge Fatale is making chocolate-lovers swoon — particularly during this summer's heat. The all-natural handmade fudge (made with purified water, no less) is prepared by using a special secret cooking process, so the sweet stuff won't melt, even if it's a dog-day August afternoon. (And no, it doesn't contain marshmallow cream.) This fabulous fudge is wrapped in serving-size pieces, packed in velvet boxes and sold in fine specialty shops and department stores and by mail.
